

Classical Music Concert in Nagoya in August 2009

Every two years a trio of well-known musicians from Austria come to Japan for a concert tour. Kulturimpuls is involved in initiating and supporting the organization of event(s) to be performed in Nagoya.

We are now looking for

- classical music enthusiasts and sponsors, who want to support us
- promotion partners for spreading the news
- Companies, that can see sponsoring us benefiting their business to cover the costs for organization and venue, the stay of the musicians and printing.

Event ideas

- business invitation with exclusive classical music
- dinner & concert
- traditional concert
- co-production with other musicians or students

Possible dates:

5. and 6. August 2009

We are looking forward to your feedback, and kindly ask you to forward this message to others who might be interested in this in any way. Let's network and connect!
